

Whistle Blower Policy

1. Objective: To provide a mechanism for employees and directors of the company to report to the Chairman of the Audit Committee/Chief Ethics Counsellor instances of unethical behaviour, actual or suspected, fraud or violation of the company's code of conduct.

"Clause:25 Reporting Concerns

Every employee of a Tata Company shall promptly report to the management, and/or third party ethics helpline, when she/he becomes aware of any actual or possible violation of the Code or an event of misconduct, act of misdemeanour or act not in company's interest. Such reporting shall be made available to suppliers and partners, too.

Any Tata employee can choose to make a protected disclosure under the whistle blower policy of the Company, providing for reporting to the chairperson of the audit committee or the board of directors or specified authority. Such a protected disclosure shall be forwarded, when there is a reasonable evidence to conclude that a violation is possible or has taken place, with a covering letter, which shall bear the identity of the whistle blower."

5.2.3 Investigations will be launched only after a preliminary review which establishes that:

- a. The alleged act constitutes an improper or unethical activity or conduct, and
- b. Either the allegation is supported by information specific enough to be investigated, or any matter that does not meet this standard is worthy of management review, but such investigations itself shall not be undertaken as an investigation of an improper or unethical activity.

Complete protection will, therefore, be given to Whistle Blowers against any unfair practice like retaliation, threat or intimidation of termination/suspension of service, disciplinary action, transfer, demotion, refusal of promotion, or the like including any direct or indirect use of authority to obstruct the Whistle Blower's right to continue perform his duties/functions including making further Protected Disclosure. The company will take steps to minimize difficulties, which the Whistle Blower may experience as a result of making Protected Disclosure. 5.5 Decision

5.5.1 If an investigation leads the Chief Ethics Counsellor/Chairman of the Audit Committee to conclude that an improper or unethical act has been committed, the Chief Ethics Counsellor/Chairman of the Audit Committee shall recommend to the management of the Company to take such disciplinary or corrective action as the Chief Ethics Counsellor/Chairman of the Audit Committee deems fit. It is clarified that any disciplinary or corrective actions initiated against the Subject as a result of the findings of an investigation pursuant to this Policy shall adhere to the applicable disciplinary procedures.

6. General Guidelines:

6.1 This Policy is an extension of the Code.

6.2 Protected Disclosures should be factual and not speculative or in the nature of a conclusion and should contain as much specific information as possible to allow for proper assessment of the nature and extent of the concern and the urgency of a preliminary investigative procedure.

6.3 The Whistle Blower's role is that of a reporting party with reliable information. They are not required or expected to act as investigators or finders of facts, nor would they determine the appropriate corrective or remedial action that may be warranted in a given case. Whistle Bowers should not act on their own in conducting any investigative activities, nor do they have a right to participate in any investigative activities other than as requested by the Chief Ethics Counsellor or the Chairman of the Audit Committee or the Investigators.

- 6.4 While it will be ensured that genuine Whistle Blowers are accorded complete protection from any kind of unfair treatment as herein set out, any abuse of this protection will warrant disciplinary action.
- 6.5 Protection under this Policy would not mean protection from disciplinary action arising out of false or bogus allegations made by a Whistle Blower knowing it to be false or bogus or with a mala fide intention.
- 6.6 Whistle Blowers, who make three or more Protected Disclosures, which have been subsequently found to be mala fide, frivolous, baseless, malicious, or reported otherwise than in good faith, will be disqualified from reporting further Protected Disclosures under this Policy. In respect of such Whistle Blowers, the Company/Audit Committee would reserve its right to take/recommend appropriate disciplinary action.
- 6.7 The identity of a Subject will be kept confidential to the extent possible given the legitimate needs of law and the investigation. Whistle Blowers are cautioned that their identity may become known for reasons outside the control of the Chief Ethics Counsellor/Chairman of the Audit Committee (e.g. during investigations carried out by the investigators).
- 6.8 Any other Employee assisting in the said investigation shall also be protected to the same extent as the Whistle Blower.

7. Amendments:

- 7.1 The company reserves the right to modify this Policy in whole or in part, at any time without assigning any reason whatsoever. However, no such amendment or modification will be binding on the Employees and Directors unless the same is notified to the Employees and Directors in writing.
